ON WINGS OF SONG

HUGHES HIGH SCHOOL

CINCINNATI, OHIO

Music is the most vital factor for morale building in war time. It is the most powerful antidote to the horror and sadness of war, and the greatest inspiration to those, soldiers and civilians alike, who are called upon to make the greatest sacrifices at this time.

The highest medium for the performance of great music is the symphony orchestra; the great masterpieces of music have been written for it, and it alone can convey to the full their grandeur.

We in Cincinnati are the proud possessors of a symphony orchestra. It represents one of the things for which America is fighting. It brings us what we most need today: energy to carry on our work, and the courage and resolution to maintain the morale which is essential to victory.

Written for "Classics of '43" by Mr. Eugene Goossens, Conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra.

Greetings and salutations to my young friends attending our famous Cincinnati Hughes High School.

I hear of the fine work you are doing on the two great war fronts, the cultural as well as the fighting. You will remember the famous Rimsky-Korsakoff was an officer on a big Russian warship anchored near our Atlantic shores for many months during the Civil War prior to composing some of Russia's most celebrated operatic and symphonic scores.

I am sure that a student skilled in counterpoint could command a clipper better than one who had neglected the so-called liberal arts and the discipline resulting from the study of the so-called exact sciences would make a better soldier indeed. My great desire as a small boy was to become a bass drummer or a railroad engineer, but as the years went on I seemed to lean to the drum, and became a composer. I am sure the training I received from my high school teachers did much to mold my future.

Congratulations to all those who have the golden opportunity of attending our great Cincinnati Hughes High School.

Your friend,

Edgar Stillman-Kelley

And the Star-Spangled Banner
In triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free,
And the home of the brave.

In the tempo of student life at Hughes, "Classics of Forty-three" endeavors to write the lyrics to the rhythm of school routine. Hughes is vibrant with a multitude of tunes: lilting bars of happiness, an occasional note of pathos, firm undertones of industry, and grace notes of nonsense blend in a medley of harmonious music. Therefore we interpret this year "On Wings of Song."

Circled by Ohio's waters,
Guarded by her hills,
Lies our dear old Cincinnati.

Like a clarion note over clamor arising,
Hughes lifts her proud head on the city's horizon.

Our southern side, the sounding board of traffic's noisome clatter,
With staid composure yet retains her calm.

A seedling,
A sunbeam,
Some water,
Some weeding,
Our care and God's touch yield
Us harvests
Of beauty.

Our sun dial tells of time that's past, as well as time today.

Amagie Taylor & Marion Becker

A symbol of service is unfurled for all of us.

On December the twenty-sixth in 1824, Thomas Hughes died. It was not until after his death that this lonely man was fully appreciated. Emigrating from English soil, Thomas Hughes found neither close friendship nor understanding in the country of his adoption. The solitary cobbler had little contact with the children whom he was later to enrich with the benefits of free education.

In his will he bequeathed his property to the city of Cincinnati; all income from this property was to be used to send poor but worthy students to Woodward College.

In 1845 a lot was purchased on Ninth Street between Race and Vine; no building was erected, however, and in 1851 the lot was sold. The next lot purchased was on Fifth Street opposite Mound. There, on January 17, 1853, the first Hughes High School building was dedicated. Eventually the number of pupils became so great that the building could no longer accommodate the growing student body. By 1910 there was a new and finer building at the corner of Clifton and McMillan, and to it an addition was added in 1925.

Since its dedication in 1853, Hughes has been guided by only eight principals. Mr. H. H. Barney was the first, and Mr. Charles Ottermann is the present head.

CHARLES OTTERMANN, Principal

This eagerly awaited product of the labors of the Annual staff and their devoted advisers, this fine volume which you are now reading, the "now" being in 1943, or perhaps twenty-five years later, serves to bring to your mind and heart memories of the days at Hughes.

Life outside is reflecting the terrific global struggle for the continuance of free and hopeful living, while in corridor and class room many and varied activities, some strange and new to the atmosphere of the school room, are receiving earnest attention and support.

May the reading of this cherished book now or in the future bring to you a warm glow of satisfaction in the realization that Hughes is striving to share the responsibilities that living in troublous days, such as these, imposes.

Greetings to the successful producers of these interesting pages, and to those to whom their contents are replete with interest and meaning.

Charles Ottermann

MRS. ELMA R. ROBINSON, Dean of Girls

Faculty

Dear Seniors of 1943:

An appreciation of the best in music, in art, in literature, in life itself, was never a more crying need than in 1943. It contributes so much to the inner peace that must sustain us in a world at war, that we can ill afford to neglect to cultivate it.

Sincerely,

Elma R. Robinson

ARTHUR J. HAVLOVIC, Assistant Principal

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever" is a quotation which has been repeated for many years. That modern society is not unmindful of this fact is evidenced by a statement observed recently in an advertisement of one of our large insurance companies. This company states, "In a world that is torn by strife and hatred there is still need for beauty."

That the class of '43 dedicates its annual to things "classical" indicates that it has not overlooked cultural values at the same time that its members have been participating, and preparing for more intensive participation, in the war effort. I congratulate the class upon both its achievements and appreciations.

STUDIES

In our present conflict, attention has turned to the air. This trend has brought two new subjects into the Hughes curriculum, aeronautics and navigation. Students learn the principles of maneuvering a plane from one point to another, piloting, dead reckoning, radio navigation, and celestial navigation. Piloting refers to flying chiefly by landmarks; this fundamental is usually the first to be mastered by the novice pilot. Dead reckoning is concise figuring of a destination; it involves some higher mathematics. Radio navigation is concerned with flying on a radio beam and by radio contacts. Celestial navigation depends on the sun, and to some extent on the stars; a course is plotted with methods similar to those used for sea travel. Aeronautics involves weather, meteorology, air strata, clouds, and other subjects for study. These fascinating new courses are destined to be first choice on many programs.

Current events are of major importance to class discussion. The social studies assume a new significance. Geography has become vital to every one of us. Below a group in the library is trying to catch a glimpse into world affairs through magazines. They are Jack Smoot, Bernard Berkowitz, Harry Magoulas, Carol Heepke, Betty Bargen, and Jean Zink.

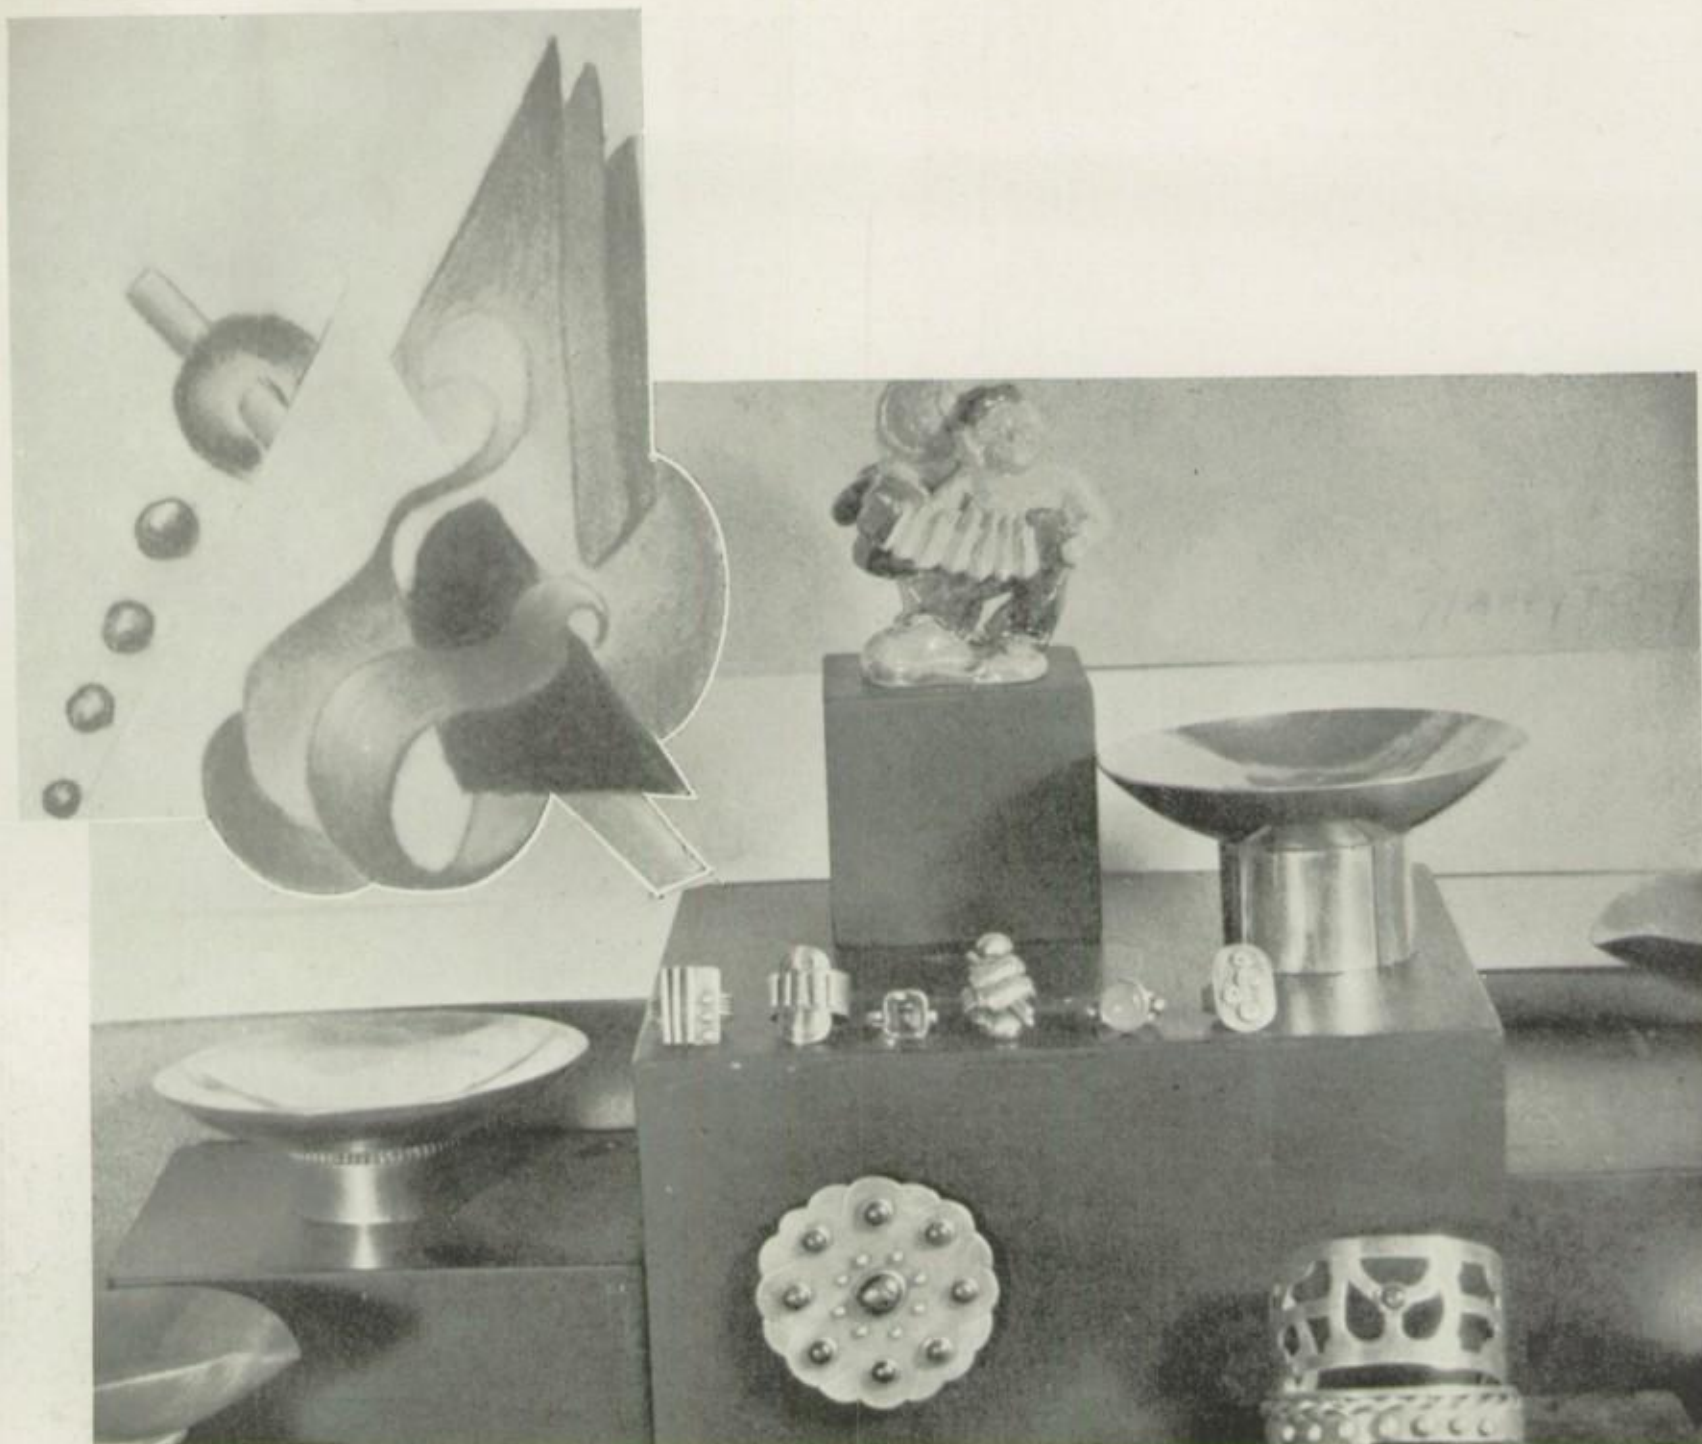

Science is important in the world of today and will probably be even more so tomorrow. In view of this, there is an accent on scientific subjects in the curriculum of Hughes. This year brought some additions to mathematical science studies in the form of navigation, aeronautics, and global geography, as a preparation for military courses besides their normal civilian usage. Physics, chemistry, and general science help us to understand the "why's and "how's" of everyday life about us, and few students fail to find it intensely interesting, thus discovering for themselves answers to natural phenomena. Actual experimentation and demonstrations in the laboratories make these subjects popular and easy to learn, for experience is a great teacher. Below, Gordon Zeidman is shown learning how to find the center of a body.

Hughes botanists, chemists, physicists, and zoologists acquire a useful background of information and training that will stand them in good stead in many ways in later pursuits, especially senior boys in considering military service to their country. As is the case with almost everything else, the subject of physics is closely connected with the present war. Physics gives the student a broad view into the work of machines, many of which are today helping us to victory, and a knowledge of the things with which we come into contact every day, yet of which we understand so little. Physics, then, is the science which supplies a great part of the answer to the eternal question "Why?" America is entering upon a new age, a scientific era in which basic foundations of scientific knowledge will be required, and Hughes is giving to its students those very foundations. The scientific mind is the mind of to-morrow.

This year students in Arts and Crafts are learning to use tin in their work because of patriotic necessity. Rings, pins, and bracelets are made from silver and bronze. The designs are often developed in contrasting metals to achieve a modern effect. Other articles such as bowls and plates are hammered from peuter. Wood carving takes form in trays and flat pieces. Leather is used in making bookcovers, bookmarks, belts, wallets, and purses which are designed to carry coins, wear on belts, or to use as regular handbags. Plaster plaques are made from plaster of Paris squares which are carved when dry. Soap carvings are shaped into figures of people and animals. The arts and crafts department strives to preserve the art of manual skill and originality.

Shown below are students of Miss Ervin's Commercial Art II class doing fashion drawing, an important part of their course. Besides their usual work, the art classes of Hughes are doing a splendid job in aiding defense. They are well represented throughout the halls—war posters for "bringing in the scrap", warnings of "the danger of loose talk", and reminders of "physical fitness". At Christmas they made and sent to Camp Pickett, Virginia, one thousand hand-blocked paper napkins, one thousand tray favors, and two thousand nut cups for the soldiers' hospital. These student activities are under the able guidance of Miss Ervin, Miss Adomeit, and Mr. Porter.

Music has always enjoyed popularity at Hughes. The whole school is music minded, from the first year in which Mr. Kratz teaches the school songs, to commencement exercises where the entire senior class raise their voices to make Music Hall earn its name. Under Mr. Molnar, sophomores, juniors, and seniors learn to know the masters, to appreciate the classics, and to sing for fun. Periods are devoted to listening to records of great works, and others to recording the results of several weeks of class work. We all get a kick out of hearing our voices on the microphone; the recording helps us to note our mistakes. This year, Mrs. Persons, sponsor of the Music Club, has written a composition the orchestration of which appears below.

Patricia Lawson, Jack Cleary, and Faye Jackson play the less usual instruments.

Almost two hundred students of Hughes received certificates for having completed the Red Cross course in First Aid. They will have a great deal to contribute to a world at peace, as well as a world at war. The above photograph shows a Junior Red Cross display in a downtown store. This was a Hughes window for it showed contributions of knitted articles and sewing from the girls in Hughes Home Economics classes. The perfect sweater was on display, for which Anne Sonnenshein won special praise. Volunteer work at the Red Cross chapter house and the packing of Christmas boxes were other activities for the Junior Red Cross.

The housewife is the backbone of a nation. Hers is the job of cooking, sewing, and knitting, of keeping "the home fires burning" for her family in a world at war. Under her skilled hands appear simple, body-building meals for all the family, clothes for herself and her children, and sweaters and socks in her spare time for the Red Cross. Students of the Home-making and Home Economics classes at Hughes under Miss Helman, Miss Peoples, and Miss Zorn are being well-trained to step into that role. Twice a week they prepare their own meals and eat them in the class room. Many of them sport sweaters which they themselves have knitted. And the Red Cross has been well supplied with sweaters, mittens, socks, and Red Cross bands made by Hughes students and teachers. They also make many of their own clothes—skirts, blouses, and suits.

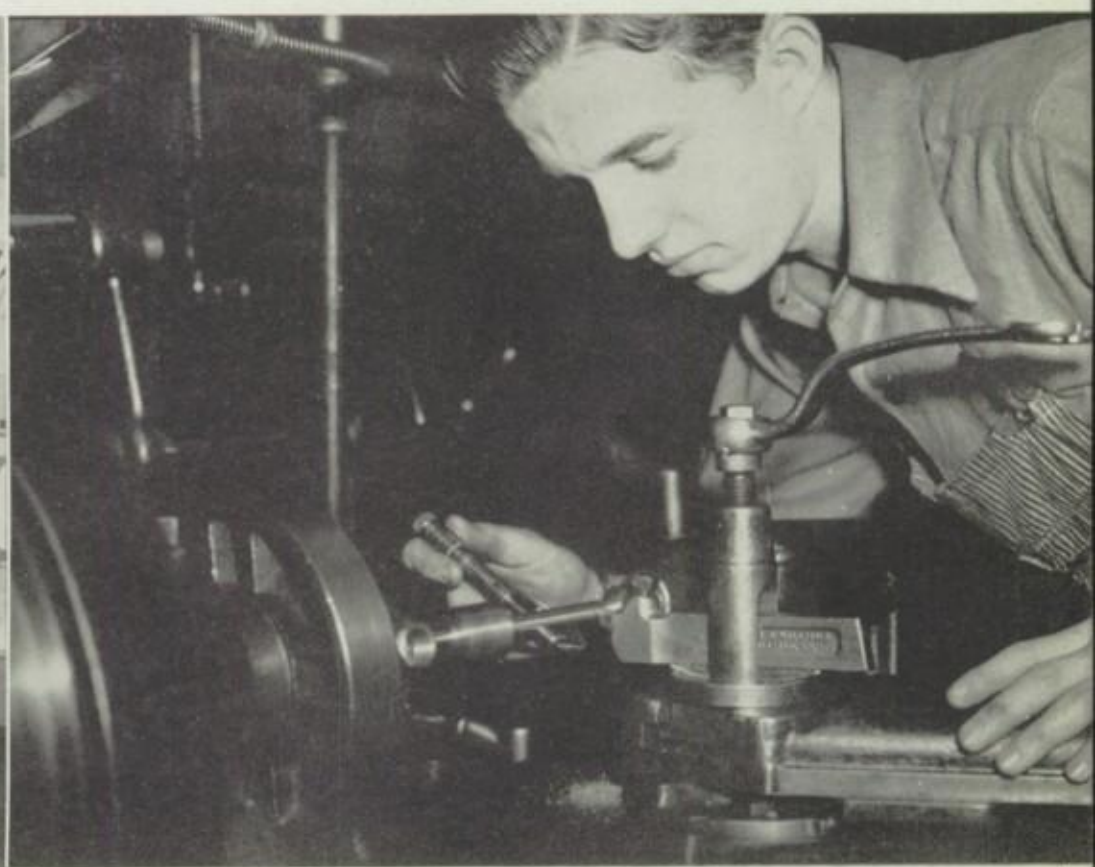

Important among the vocational courses that prepare us for commercial careers is typing. Acquiring the ability to type is different from learning to speak foreign languages or to work math problems, and the pupils usually find typing an interesting subject. First the novice learns to feel at "home on the range" of home-keys, venturing out on a "j", "u", "i", "m", "j" or a "gug mug mum gum" line as a start. Soon sentences appear on the page and the clatter of the class becomes a little more formidable. Rapid steps soon bring transposition, letter-writing, and the finer points of typing to the student's fingertips. Benefits from the training are immediate; neat homework papers delight the teachers; and budding stenographers, authors, reporters, and plain old letter-writers put their new talent to work quickly and use it the rest of their lives. Advanced students receive special office training, along with shorthand, which prepares them for business routine so they can step into jobs after graduation and know what to do, and how to do it. Some Hughes typists have turned their ability toward aiding the Red Cross, typing forms, doing their part in the war effort. Typing is, without doubt, the practical subject for the practical student.

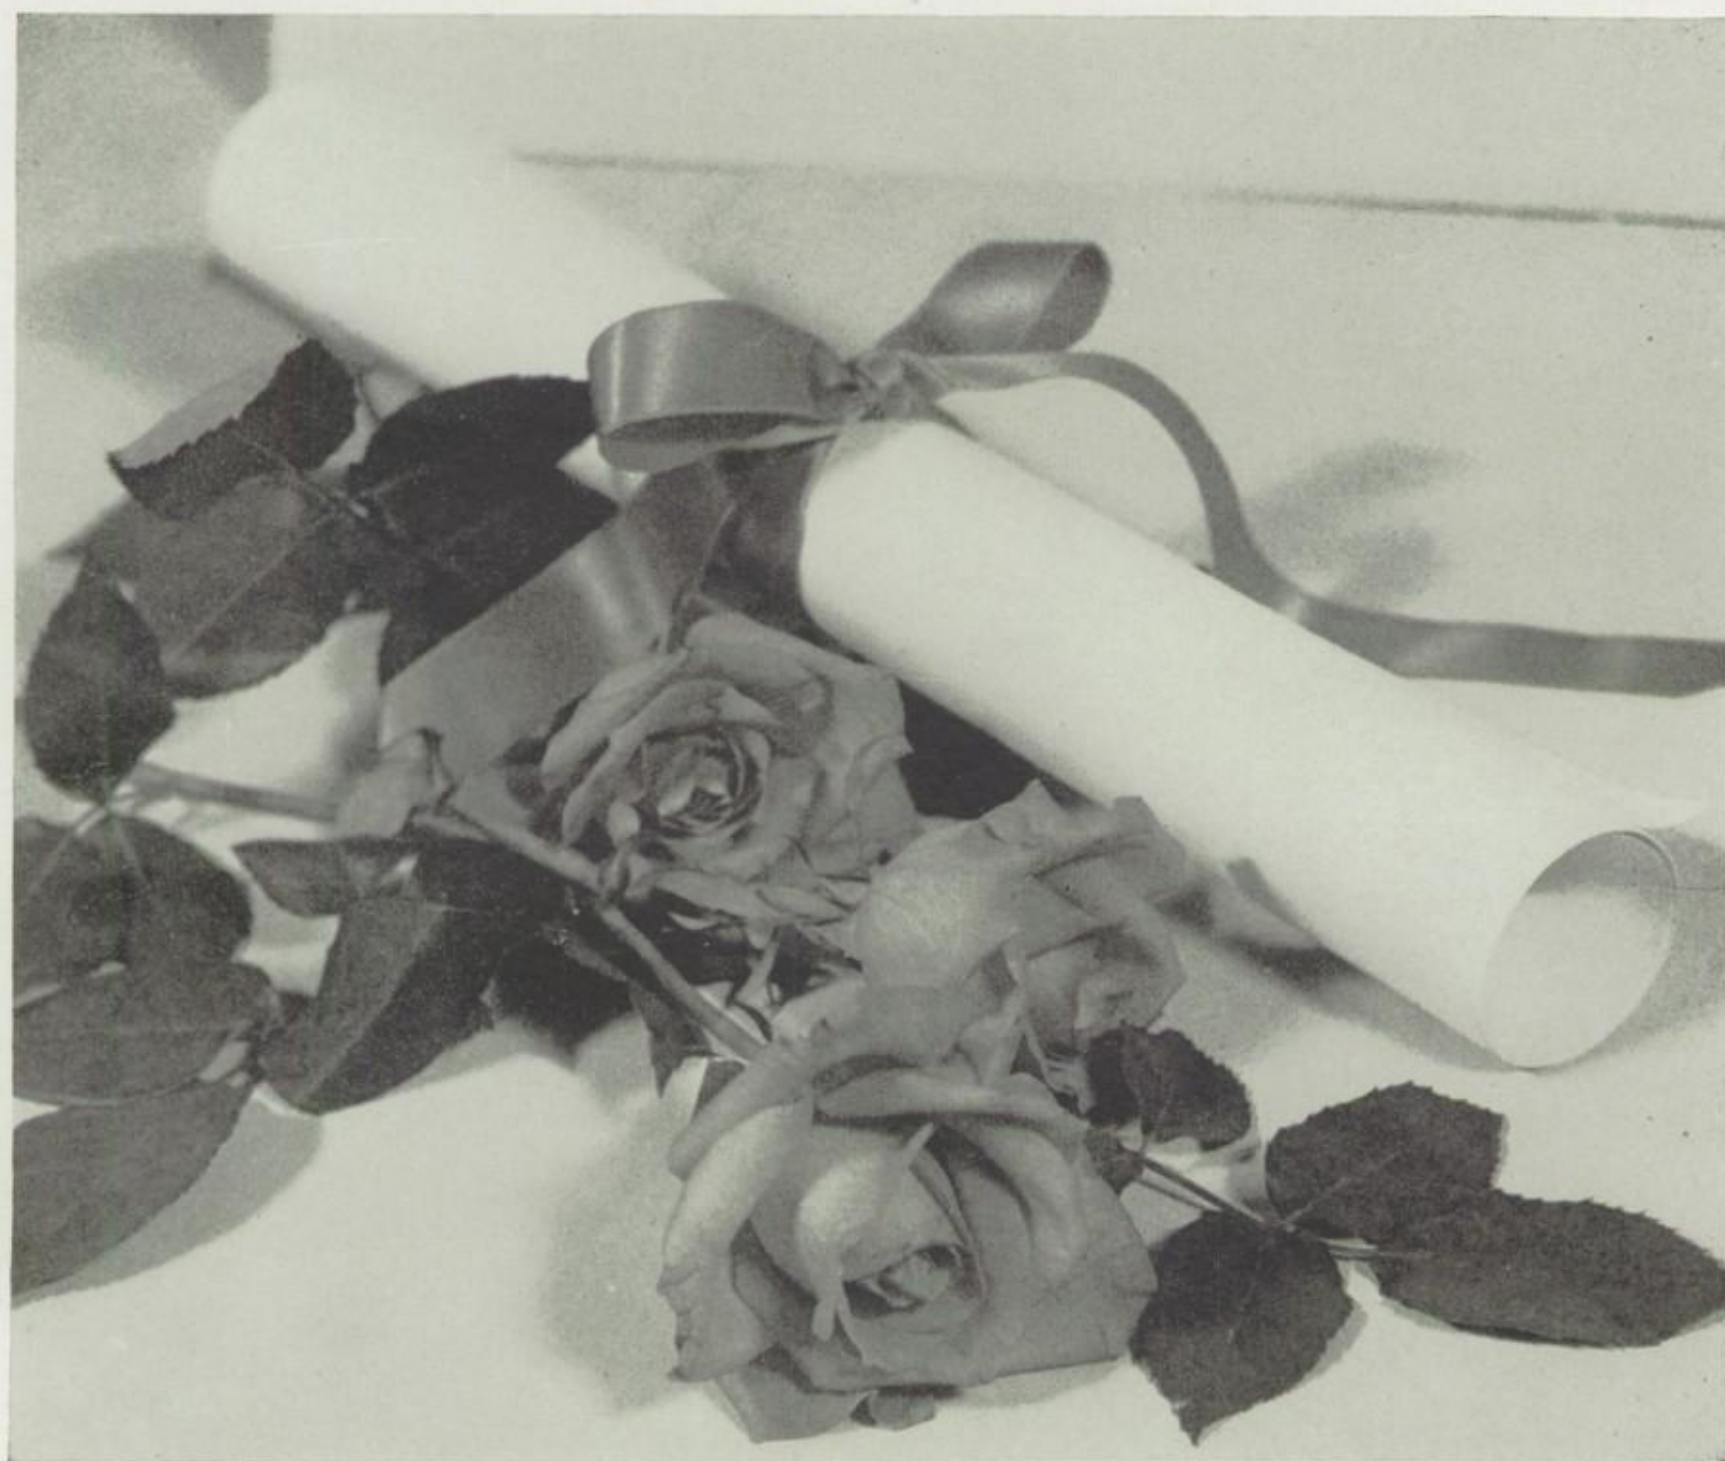

Working in wood, and training in carpentry and machine shop have a definite appeal to some boys who find ample guidance in the industrial arts classes of Hughes. Deft carpenters, budding artisans, and potential metal-workers, all essential to our workaday world, are practicing in the grottoes of Hughes basement every day. When they have finished their course, the results are in the hand as well as in the mind. Frequently these products are made with a special aim; many worthy contributions have been made to our city's charitable organizations. Below we see Armand Kilijian displaying the wheelbarrows, and William Moening running a lathe.

SENIORS

POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE

ONG, LONG AGO, we, the class of 1943, were freshmen; certain parts of that eventful year stand out in our minds.

The Popularity Contest was one of these, with

Harvey Guthrie the first of our ranks to come into the limelight. That was the year of "Old Professor's School

Daze," "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," "The Valiant," "Adam and Eva" and our first bitter taste of exams.

The year rolled swiftly by and we soon found ourselves promoted to the rank of sophomores.

That year, 1940-41, we began to take more interest in school activities; Virginia

Beck was the president of P and G. That also was the year of "Thru the Night," and "Death Takes a Holiday," both Sages productions; "Sweethearts," an operetta; and the World's Series. The basketball team won the Southwest Ohio District

Championship. That June we bade farewell to Mr.

Merry and welcomed Mr. Ottermann into our midst.

Our junior year brought our class into its own. Ruth Hill and Burt Pease were editors of the "Gargoyle,"

Don Thomas was president of the French Club.

Ody Bergsmark brought honors to the cast of "Old Doc," and many of us took part in the Spring Concert.

But most memorable was the December 8th auditorium to hear the President declare War.

We ended the year by electing our class officers for 1943: President, Burt Pease; Vice-President, Ody

Bergsmark; Treasurer, Don Ebersold;

and Secretary, Ruth Hill.

Last fall the boys joyfully entered the realms of 312

and the Honor

League made plans for the Big Sister party. Assuming our position at the head of the school, we took an active part in the Victory Corps, sponsored a Christmas Dance  and banished all hope of ever seeing the Big Reds defeat the Withrow Tigers.  Now we are looking forward to graduation but wherever we go, be it to college, to the armed forces,  or to work, we will always remember the friends we have made and the good times we have had here at Hughes.

To aid in the war effort, Hughes students this year formed their Victory Corps. Each home room elected a representative to a General Victory Corps Council which chose an executive committee of eight students: two freshmen, two sophomores, two juniors, and two seniors. From this committee Jerry Moss was made chairman; Phyllis Hock, vice-chairman; and Bill Sonderman, secretary. Later the General Council added another member-at-large to the executive committee in order to break tie voting. Mr. Havlovic has been the helpful adviser of the Corps. Under Victory Corps guidance, students collected scrap metal, paper, and silk hose. Later they brought coat hangers for the Army Air Cadets across the avenue at U. C. All the schools in Cincinnati gathered together games to be sent to U. S. O. camps. These collections came to Hughes where the Victory Corps sorted, packed, and distributed to camps many boxes. In the midst of these activities, Jerry Moss left Hughes to go to the University of Cincinnati; Phyllis Hock became chairman, and Paul Riegert Vice-chairman. The group pushed on with drives for records and books. The Victory Corps has tried to help not only our soldiers, but also civilian defense. Boys have studied to become air-raid wardens. Girls have dressed dolls for the Children's Convalescent Home. Many have coned First Aid lessons on bandaging a sprained ankle. Others have spent Saturday mornings at the Red Cross station rolling bandages, and planted and tended Victory gardens. Through the diversified efforts of the Victory Corps, students have done something for our fighting men and our country.

Dick Lodwick, Phyllis Holt, Ann Menjes, Ruth Hoffman, Bert Rosenberg, Jean Ackley, Jean Zink, Madeline Cuiccio are members of the Hughes First Aid Detachment. In case of an emergency in the building, they are called by a special signal to the rescue. Mr. Lang has directed the advance work in First Aid. Hughes also has a stretcher squad on call for cases of accident or sudden illness.

The Honor League is a traditional Hughes organization which opens its membership to every girl in the senior class. Among the many services performed by the Honor League is the work of the Freshies' Guides who are selected by officers of the club to help new students in the fall. Many of the girls have volunteered their services to the Red Cross on Saturdays and after school. The Little Sisters' Party, an annual Honor League occasion, gave the freshmen an opportunity to become better acquainted with Hughes. The organization, under the guidance of Miss Julia Bentley, has had a very enjoyable year with parties, a quiz contest, and speakers at various meetings. Two of the most interesting visitors of the year were Mrs. Hickenlooper, of the U. S. O., and Mrs. Charles P. Taft, who told of the part girls may play in this world at war. The League maintained a helpful service at the Information Desk in the front hall where two girls were on duty each bell to help visitors and anyone else unfamiliar with the school.

The Hi-Y Club is made up of a select group of the Hughes Club members and as signified by the title connects the high-school with the Y. M. C. A. activities. Meetings are held at the Immanuel Presbyterian Church in Clifton every other week. The purpose of the club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

Sponsor Mr. Lang, President Staf-ford Lowe, Vice-President Millard Beücler, Treasurer John Bruckmann, Secretary Earl Desserich.

Secretary Jerry Moss, President Jim Wilson, Vice-President Edwin Vandegriff, Treasurer Don Ebersold, Sponsor Mr. Havlovic, Corresponding Secretary Herman Burgett.

The Hughes Club is the organization that sells the shakers, pins, and pennants for the games, that gives the school its support on all activities, and that binds together the leading boys of the upper grades to act on any problems arising during the year. An interesting and helpful type of program is provided at all the meetings which take place every Friday evening. This year the club presented a movie in the auditorium, had a swimming party for its members, and planned a pleasure trip for the end of the year.

Hughes orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. A. R. Kratz, has continued its outstanding work for the school and the community. The music has added to many of the auditorium sessions both enjoyment and color. Many commented on the beauty and serenity contributed by the musical accompaniment, "Largo" by Handel, to the Thanksgiving speech. Giving up their time on Saturday evenings, the orchestra members have supplied music for the soldiers at the U. S. O. Donut Center at Government Square. By this simple gesture they did their share to help the soldiers, who are serving our country, to enjoy themselves while on leave. A plan to have an orchestra from all the high schools play for the North Central Music Convention held in Cincinnati this year caused the orchestra to rehearse industriously in order to be able to play it to the best of their ability. For the commencement exercises, too, they furnished a lovely part of the program.

Boys' Glee Club*

From a distance above the heads of this lowly group of earth dwellers come the voices of some heavenly chorus, slowly chanting the rich melody of a spiritual, or alternating with the light refrain of the Australian "Digger's" favorite song. Enthralled by this ethereal harmony, mere mortals cease their toil to listen and dream. More often than not, however, rude disillusionment comes when the music pauses to permit the bass angels to try their part alone, just at the crescendo of the carol. Yes, you have guessed it. The lofty paradise from which the unseen choir pours forth its strains? 306! This humble abode of mere human beings, 205, or any other classroom on the north side of the building is sufficiently close to catch snatches of song. The Celestial choristers may be the Girls' Glee Club, the Boys' Glee Club, or the A Cappella Choir. You enjoy the fruits of their efforts in many long-remembered auditorium sessions, or on special occasions that give our parents and friends outside of school the opportunity to appreciate the talents of our musical organizations. A hymn of praise to the ruler omnipotent, Mr. Molnar, and long and great success to his good subjects!

The Hughes Band participated in another community service, playing for the men leaving from the Clifton and Corryville draft boards. The band members, sometimes donning their scarlet uniforms, played several numbers including the "Old Army Game", "Jingle, Jangle, Jingle", and "Hello March" while the drum majorettes passed out candy and cigarettes to the men. In this simple way they did their best to show those men going into training that we appreciate what they are doing for our country. The band also furnished music for the program at Hughes in which the Clifton Heights Honor Roll was dedicated. The band continued their practice of giving one afternoon to the "Little Sisters of the Poor" Home on Riddle Road. The purpose of this visit was to brighten the old peoples' day with a musical entertainment which consisted of "Yule Tidings" for the Christmas season, "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition" and the service songs. Adding color and spirit to the football games, the band appeared at games to do their strutting on the field. A portion of the band furnished music for the basketball games to cheer the team to victory. This group played for several auditoriums and when the Coast Guard Band was at Hughes, both combined forces. We are proud of our band!

MARSEILLAISE

Although not as large numerically as in previous years, Le Cercle Francais has equalled, and, in some ways, bettered standards set in the past. The officers, under the guidance of Miss Louise Bentley, performed their duties in the traditional manner that has made the French Club one of the most interesting organizations at Hughes. Ranging from fortune-telling and word games to selections presented from Moliere, the programs of this club have never failed to create interest, never failed to provide amusement for those interested in the practical application of what they have learned in class. This year the members have had the privilege of hearing one lecture in French by M. Andre Morize of Harvard, and another by M. Franc Thenaud of the University of Cincinnati. Although the French nation may be temporarily down, the French language will live on, through the efforts of interested students such as these.

Lovers of the Roman classics meet monthly under the direction of Miss M. J. Bentley to dig, delve, and pry further into the mysteries of Latin. With cross-word puzzles, plays, word games, and possibly some refreshments, Latin students, from sophomores up, discover that Caesar, Cicero and Vergil were not speaking Greek after all.

Those who study third and fourth year mathematics generally have a liking for the subject, and the Math Club, under Mr. Siehl's guidance, fosters this appreciation. This year has been an active one for the club, whose meetings were rich in subject matter presented by authoritative speakers. Among these were Dr. Dwight and Dr. Merriman of the University of Cincinnati, and Mr. Bauer and Mr. Lang of Hughes' faculty. As a final gesture of a war year, the club contributed a portion of its treasury to the Red Cross.

MATH CLUB officers: H. Krikorian and E. Vandegriff on the Exec. Com., Pres. G. Weber, Sec.-Treas. V. Beck, Vice-pres. R. Rosenbaum. Mr. Siehl is the sponsor of the club.

"Jane Jones! Don't you dare call me Susie."
"Sugar and Spice," a one-act play was presented by the junior dramatics class. Ruth Djerf, as Jane Jones, provided the sugar; Marion Becker, playing Suzanne Harling, the spice; and George Stevens, Chump Edwards, the boy.

1943 completes the twenty-second year of "The Sages" as a dramatic group under the inspiring direction of Miss Erna Kruckemeyer. In collaboration with the two dramatic classes, Sages have to their credit this year two one-act comedies, three patriotic programs, an Arbor Day broadcast, and a very successful production of the well-known American Civil War play, "The Copperhead", given at Wilson Memorial. For the final work of the year the Sages are planning a festival of dramatic scenes from "Elizabeth, the Queen", "Cyrano", "Sun Up", "Journey's End", "Ah, Wilderness", and other well known plays. Those competing for honors are Harry Magoulas, Odelys Bergsmark, Marion Becker, Ronald Freeman, Frank Ober, Bill Traber, Rose Riegert, Marie Roemer, Ruth Djerf, Paul Carter, Juanita Rich, Virgie Olmstead, Dick Lodwick, George Stevens, Stephen Craddock, Don Denning, Shirley Cuthbert. Thespian honors were given in March to Harry Magoulas, Marion Becker, Ruth Djerf, Frank Ober, and Shirley Cuthbert. Five more will be chosen from those competing in the Festival of scenes to be held on May 12.

Stephen "1A" Craddock

Some of the outstanding productions in Sage history are "Dido and Aeneas", "Queen of Camelot", "Cyrano", "There was a Merry Prince", "Death Takes a Holiday", "Taming of the Shrew", and "The Romantic Young Lady."

"The Copperhead" by Augustus Thomas was the high light production on March 5 of the 1943 Sages. It was a powerfully moving Civil War play whose motives bore on the present. The characters took form under the direction of Miss Erna Kruckemeyer. Lighting and setting at Wilson auditorium were handled by Tommy Jackson and the other members of the stage crew with the advice of Mr. Elmer Porter. Miss Ruth Helman of Household Arts and Miss Gladys Dee Ervin, of the Art Department costumed the production. Make-up was done by Miss Wilson who assisted Mrs. Robinson during the second semester. Tickets and promotion were handled by Mr. Huber, Mr. Bauer, Miss Aria Shawe and student committees. All proceeds from "The Copperhead" were given to the American Red Cross and the U. S. O.

Part II—Forty Years Later

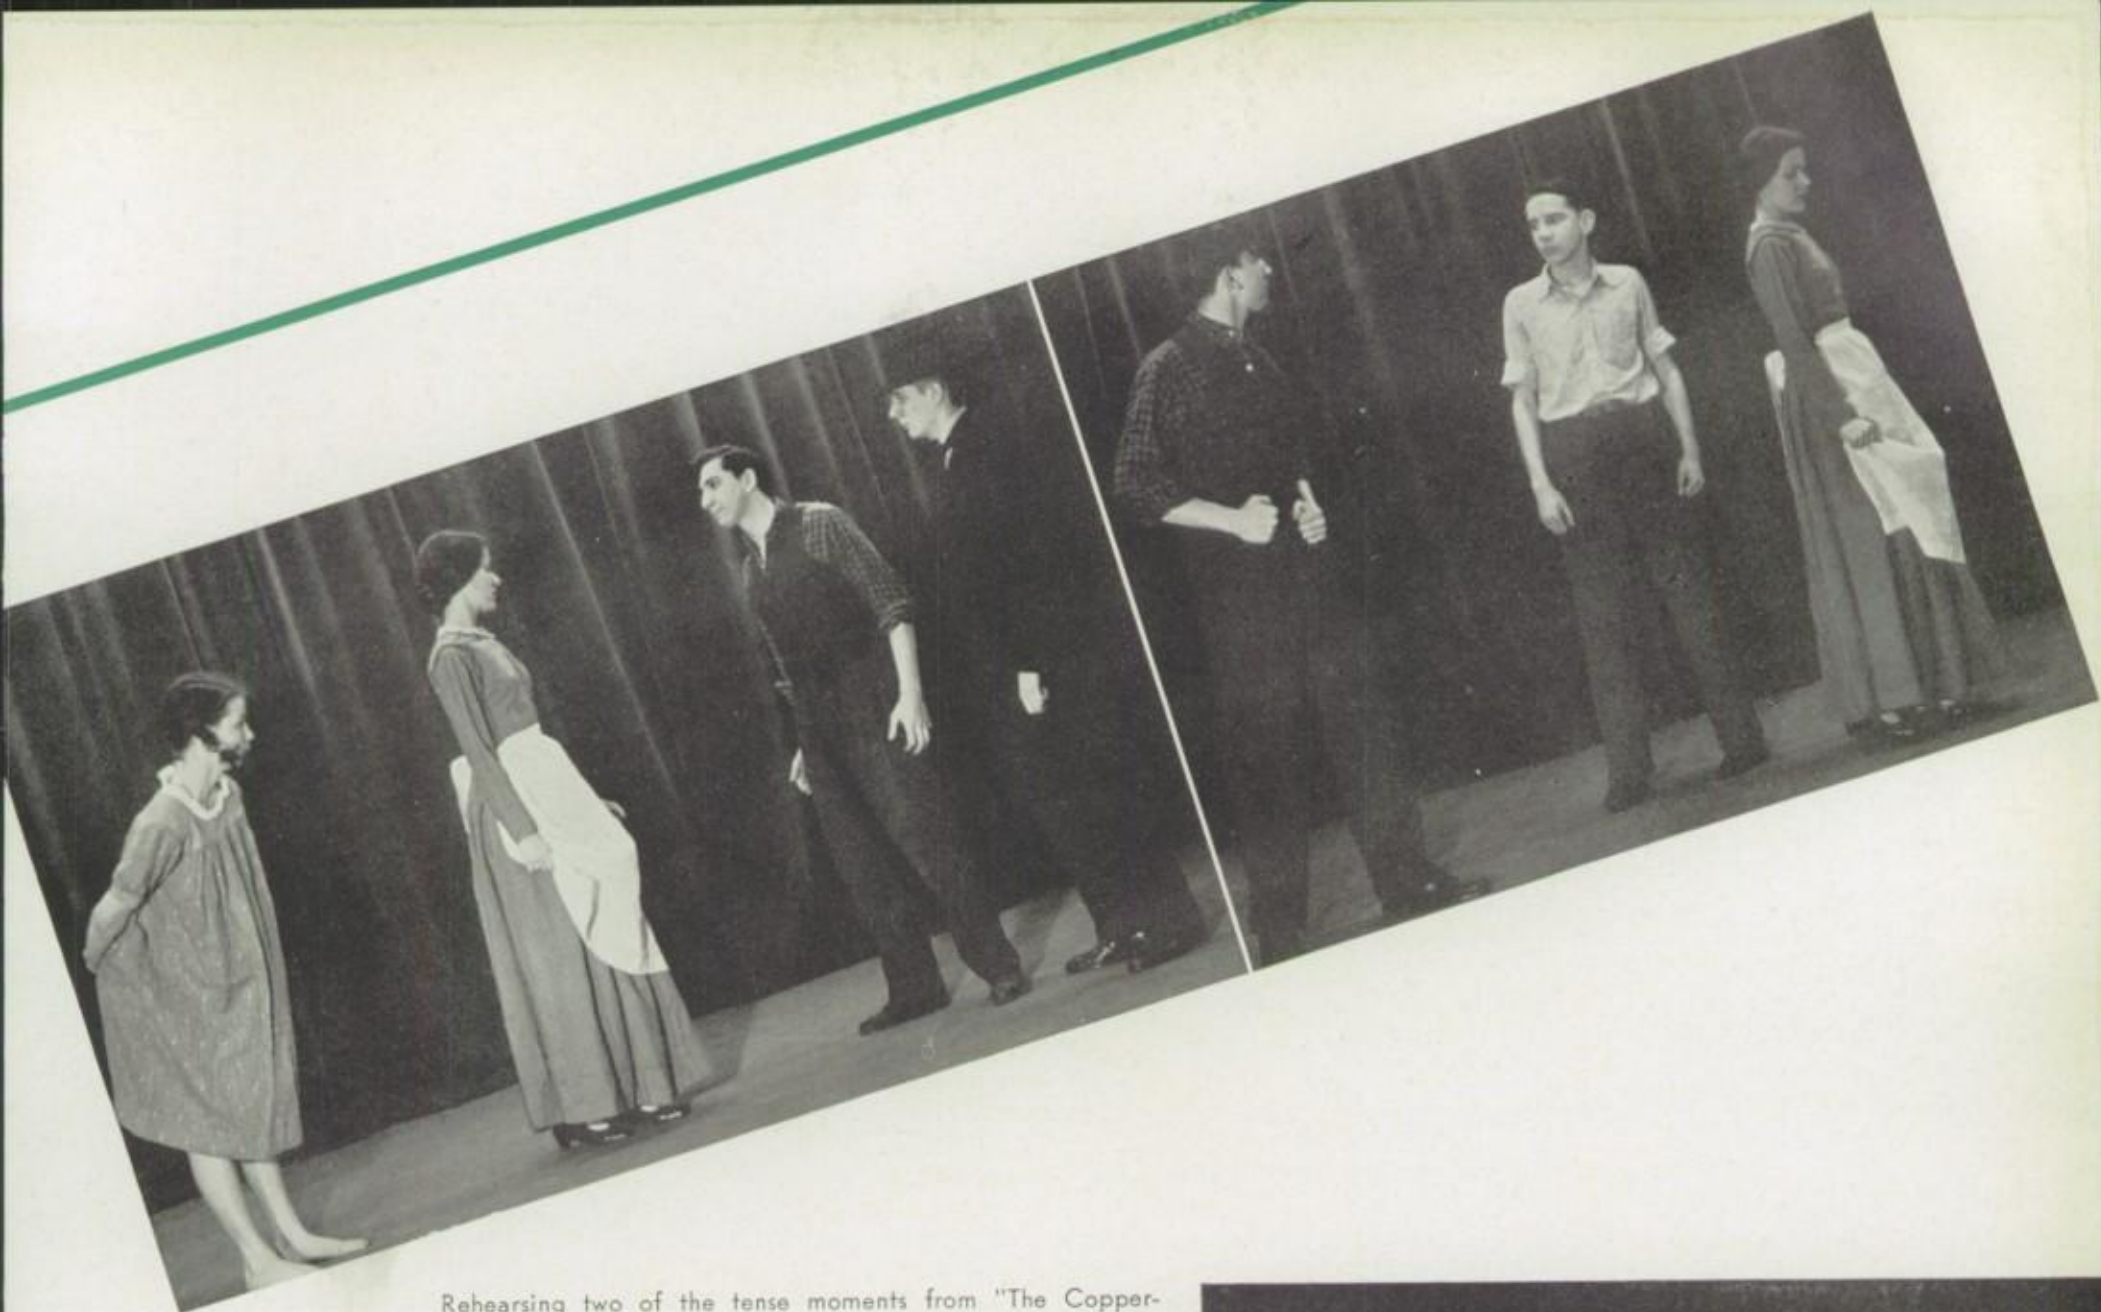

Act III—The door yard of Milton Shanks

Act IV—The same.

Scene laid in Southern Illinois

Shirley Cuthbert and Harry Magoulias rehearse two scenes between Ma and Milt. Spirited Grandma Perley was played by Ruth Djerf. Don Deming and Odelys Bergsmark rehearse a romantic moment between Philip Manning and Madeline King. Bill Traber practices as "the other man", Dr. Randall.

Rehearsing two of the tense moments from "The Copperhead". Milt Shanks, Harry Magoulias, attempts to explain his Copperhead activities to Ma, Shirley Cuthbert, while Brother Andrews, Frank Ober, and Sue Perley, Marion Becker, anxiously look on. The bonds between Milt and his son Joey, Paul Carter, and his wife are strained to the breaking point when Milt refuses to volunteer for the Army.

Harry Magoulias, as the aged Milt Shanks, is reinstated into the esteem of his neighbors when his service to President Lincoln in exposing the plans of the Copperheads is revealed.

Madeline King, granddaughter of Milt Shanks, was played by Odelys Bergsmark.

"News!"

"Rip out that dummy!"

Amid the clatter of typewriters, the hum of news-hungry voices, the scratch of the editorial pen, the "Gargoyle" goes to press weekly in its new alcove office. Under the direction of Miss Hazel T. Koppenhoefer, a staff of juniors lords it over freshmen copy boys and sophomore cub reporters, as it edits the Hughes news organ. 1942-1943 saw such innovations as a five column paper, a regular literary supplement, a new five cent price, and a brand new office.

EDITOR DON THOMAS

Editors and business managers began work on this year-book a year ago. They and the rest of the staff present it to the seniors of '43 and the other members of the student body with the hope that it may recall a complete year at Hughes. Themes, plans, and details of organization were made and discarded many times before the volume was ready for the printer. Ideas for developing the theme which was finally adopted came from all who worked with it. Many contributed the titles of musical compositions which seemed appropriate to the different sections of the book. All suggestions went to Jean Zink who had charge of the layouts and the graphic line drawings which tie the color scheme into the book. The faculty of the Art Department lent advice that was most helpful,—Mr. Porter in the advertising section; Miss Adomeit and Miss Ervin in the rest of the book. Don Thomas looked after copy and general organization. Subscriptions topped all other years under Jinny Beck and Dick Crain with the effective cooperation of Mr. Clyde Hall, the financial adviser for the book. Gordon Zeidman, '44, headed the student camera squad which was constantly on the job to catch all phases of school life, and to improve their photographic technique. Mr. R. Fell, sponsor of the school camera club, was most helpful to the group. The senior glossies, back from the engraver, helped boost the sale of war stamps. Miss Helen Tangeman, general faculty ad-Vice-pres. Marvin Simon, Pres. Marcia Booth, Sec. Ruth Hill and Treas. Harold Dinger led the Sales Club. Completing one of their most successful years, the Sales Club, under the guidance of Miss Mary McSurely, donated money to the Red Cross, the war chest, and aided the Victory Corps with the record drive.

The Home Economics Club baked cookies for the Union Terminal U. S. O. at Christmas time, and put together knitted squares for afgans for the Army and Navy. In February a white elephant sale was held. Various programs on food conservation and rationing proved helpful.

The Pep Club was organized in 1941 to stimulate school spirit in the athletic events of the year. The members made posters announcing the games, they originated stunts for the football games, and they sponsored a hayride to the Hamilton game to spark student interest. The club bought pennants and signs to aid the Athletic Association. This year its seventy-five members have aided greatly in arousing the student body to increased activity.

PEP CLUB Officers: Sec. Shirley Partlan, Pres. Ruth Hill, Treas. Dan Zugelter, Vice-Pres. Herman Burgett, Sergeant-at-arms Fred Stroehlein.

ATHLETICS

STAND ASIDE, RIVALS

An overflowing Hughes opener crowd writhed for a solid hour as the Elder Panthers opened Cincinnati's high school grid season by walloping the Big Reds in every quarter of a one-sided game. Despite a half-dozen fumbles on the part of both teams, a raw Hughes eleven failed to stiffen against a Panther onslaught. In the second half Hughes prevented any further Elder scoring, but was unable to erase the goose egg on the score board.

The already much-maligned Big Reds fought evenly matched Purcell eleven to victory at Withrow stadium. Both teams scored in the second quarter, Hughes owing its touchdown to the aerial teamwork of Tom O'Malley and Harry Gaz. Two minutes later the Cavaliers crossed the Hughes line, but failed to convert. Again in the third quarter both teams rang up a touchdown apiece, Kenny Green making the final Hughes tally with a run through center.

Big Reds make ready for practice season, Pete Garvin and Tom O'Malley, co-captains of the team, prepare for scrimmage. Bob Ochs, assistant manager, holds ball for Garvin's kickoff.

The Big Reds swung into their stride at their first night game to scalp the Norwood Indians. As the half approached, a series of three fast, beautiful plays—a run by Ted Bumiller, pass by Tom O'Malley, and another run by Ken Green—rang up a 6 to 0 Hughes lead. An air offensive dominated the Hughes strategy in the third quarter as Green passed from deep in Hughes territory to the Norwood 17-yard line. Green and Garvin put their shoulders to the line to get the ball across. In the fourth, Tom O'Malley came through with two passes for a touchdown, and a third for the game's only successful conversion.

A hard-fought battle on the Covington team's home grounds failed to stem the tide of a six-time victorious Bulldog squad. Co-captain Pete Garvin distinguished himself when, after Holmes had marched down the field to draw first blood, he galloped 60 yards to even things up. Fear of a tie was dispelled in the last minute of play when the Bulldogs pushed the defending Hughes eleven back to their own two-yard line.

A favored Western Hills grid squad met a stone wall in a Hughes gang launching its first P.H.S.L. game. The Big Reds scored first, with Pete Garvin crossing the line to climax a series of fast back field plays that brought the Hughes boys to the Maroon one-foot line. West Hi evened the score in the next quarter. The rest of the game featured fine defensive playing by both teams. A slippery ball put a crimp in the stye of Tom O'Malley's aerial work.

The Big Reds journeyed to Hamilton late Friday afternoon, October 30, to meet their almost traditional defeat at the hands of Hamilton High's Big Blues. Hughes optimistically started the ball rolling in the second quarter when Harry Gaz fell on a Hamilton fumble to begin a 70-yard push up the field that ended when Ken Green drove across the Big Blues' line. Tom O'Malley contributed the extra point with a perfect drop kick. Hamilton swung into action soon afterwards with an aerial blitz.

The Big Reds met their traditional rivals, the Withrow Tigers, in the annual P.H.S.L. doubleheader at Nippert Stadium. The future city champs monopolized the first half in ringing up 21 points over weak Hughes line resistance. Two touchdowns were made in the last 30 seconds of the first half. Pete Garvin set the ball going for the Big Reds when he ploughed through the Tiger line. Tom O'Malley drop-kicked for the extra point. The situation began to look more hopeful when Yuellig went over for an additional six points but the Krueckmen failed to catch up.

To end their season, the Hughes eleven delighted in walking all over an outclassed Woodward team to pin up a score that warmed the hearts of all Hughes fans. Pete Garvin crossed the Bulldog line after a fifty-yard run, and Bumiller broke through center for the extra point. Tommy Scott, after a series of rapid Hughes gains, rang up another six-point tally. A preview of the 1943 football season followed when the Hughes first-string seniors withdrew to let the next generation carry on. Ted Bumiller crossed the Bulldog line for his second time before Woodward managed to tally.

The score sheets show that the Hughes junior and senior Gym teams have brought another championship to Hughes. This makes the sixth consecutive year for the juniors, and the seventh for the seniors. The boys, under the supervision of Coach Paul Richert, have kept the school tradition. This year the team participated in four meets, three of which consisted in the race for the championship; the other was an individual meet in which our boys gave a good account of themselves. The first meet was held at Withrow where Hughes scored two first places in the junior and senior divisions. The juniors scored sixty-nine points against the seventeen and one-half points of Walnut Hills. The seniors scored fifty-four points against Woodward's forty-seven points. Then at Woodward, Hughes took top honors. At the meet to decide the championship our boys came through with top honors.

Allan Schubert does a giant swing on the horizontal bar.

Last came the individual meet, held at Walnut Hills, where Schubert of Hughes placed first, followed by Leigh of Hughes taking second. Hughes had seven men place within the first ten. Among the juniors, Fisbeck of Hughes took top honors, with others taking seventh and eighth places. Special mention should be given to Schubert, Leigh, Singerman, Capt. Stith, Smith, Denyven, Loshin, Wolpa, and Griffin for their fine performances this year. We also should give Manager D. Leigh special mention for his fine work. All of the above members of the team received their emblems.

FIRST BASKETBALL TEAM

HUGHES 22 PURCELL 33 Hughes Big Reds met Purcell in their initial tilt of '43. Our boys bowed after putting up a strong fight in the first half. To find the best playing combination, Coach Guastini used the whole team.

HUGHES 29 WITHROW 39 In first PHSL tilt of '43, the Big Reds suffered defeat at the hands of Withrow. The new zone defense showed improvement, but our boys lacked the scoring punch.

HUGHES 29 TERRACE PARK 32 Playing an exceptionally strong Terrace Park team, Hughes admitted defeat in the final minutes after leading throughout.

HUGHES 30 NORWOOD 24 Playing before a large crowd, Hughes masterfully defeated the highly lauded Norwood quintet. O'Malley sparked offense and Moss backed defense.

HUGHES 35 WOODWARD 41 Trying hard for their second win, playing stiffly under pressure, Hughes committed 15 fouls which paved the way for Woodward's victory.

HUGHES 23 HAMILTON 25 Traveling to our neighboring city, we again met defeat at the hands of a weak Big Blue quintet. The Big Reds as a whole seemed to have lost their pepper and played a listless game.

HUGHES 47 CENTRAL VOCATIONAL 19 Hughes encountered little difficulty in trouncing a weak Central team. This win seemed to inject new spirit and fight into the boys.

HUGHES 53 WALNUT HILLS 30 On the Walnut Hills Floor, the Big Reds played from start to finish like a championship team. Both offensively and defensively the team clicked to perfection.

HUGHES 27 WEST HI 33 Leading until the final minutes, Hughes' hopes for her third straight win were shattered by a strong West Hi finish. Both teams played brilliantly throughout the contest.

HUGHES 32 COVINGTON 27 Playing before a large crowd at the U. C. gym, the Big Reds climbed back into the win column at the expense of the Covington Bulldogs.

HUGHES 37 WITHROW 24 Hughes lead throughout. Zone defense clicked to perfection. Withrow was unable to stop the Hughes offense. O'Malley scored 28 points and Gaz starred on defense.

HUGHES 42 WOODWARD 31 Hughes, playing hard to maintain her possibilities for co-champs in the PHSL league, outfought a stubborn Woodward team. The zone defense again worked well. Brinn led the defense and O'Malley, the offense.

HUGHES 48 WALNUT HILLS 34 Hughes won again!! Meeting a fair Walnut Hills team on the U. C. floor, the Big Reds had little difficulty in gaining their fourth straight victory. O'Malley scored 32 points.

HUGHES 33 WESTERN HILLS 36 Hughes led throughout the first half. Fans were constantly on edge as both teams battled up and down the floor. West-Hi grabbed the lead in the second half with two quick buckets.

Our boys go "up and at 'em" in the Walnut Hills Game.

With a noticeable lack of veterans the senior tankmen, under the capable coaching of Alan Kindschy, were able to take victories over all their rivals of the P. H. S. L. Consistent winners were Mike Kennedy, a sophomore free-styler who splashed to high scoring honors on the team, and Captain Dick Crain, veteran breaststroker who captured eight victories in ten starts. Letters were awarded to Captain Dick Crain, Jim Muchmore, Ted Bumiller, Don Buck, Charlie Blymeyer, Mike Kennedy, and Manager Johnson Schwab.

The Junior team, sparked by Sam Todd, Jerry Kennedy, Jeff Cook, and Dick Bosse, showed promise of being senior champions next year by finishing but a few points behind the city championship.

Boat Pickel

"Well, it's Hughes again!" agreed the coaches of other schools this year. Coach Paul Richert brought another championship Cross-Country team to Hughes this year, the sixth winner in his coaching career at Hughes. This year, because of the transportation difficulties, Hughes entered only two meets, but that was enough to show what the boys could do. The first meet was held at Avon Field on October 24, 1942. The Hughes team, captained by an outstanding runner, Charles Schetter, placed first. Individual results of the Hughes team were as follows: Charles Schetter—First; Bill Gandenberger—Eighth; George Honold—Twelfth; J. T. Lane—Sixteenth; August Hermes—Twenty-first; Bob Gellenbeck—Twenty-fourth; Wilbert Henrich—Twenty-sixth. Hughes was declared the winner.

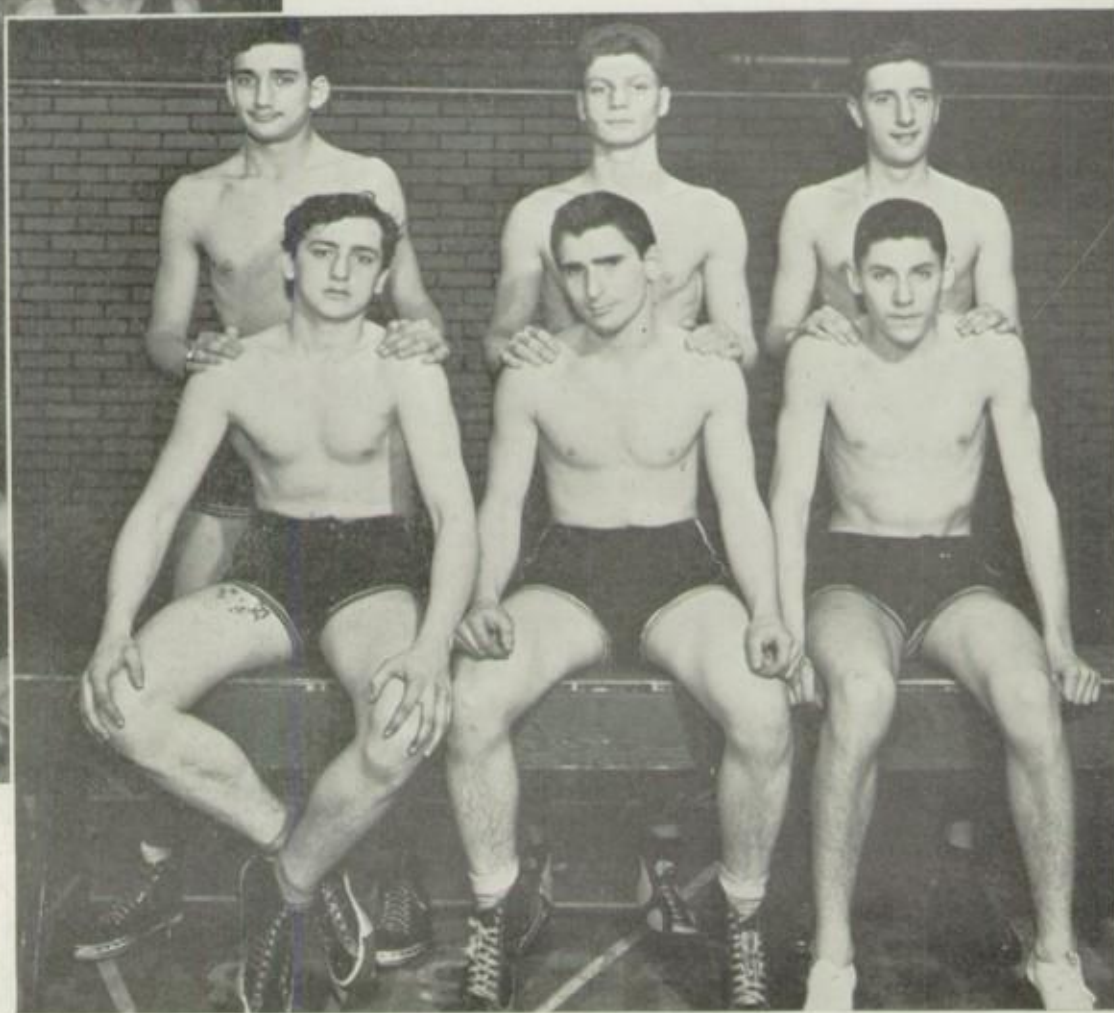

Next came the P. H. S. L. championship meet at U. C. on Nov. 7. It was a rainy day, but when the smoke had cleared, Schetter was almost a quarter mile in front, and the other Hughes boys were right behind him. Their positions were as follows: Charles Schetter—First 9:45.2; J. T. Lane—Fourth; Bob Gellenbeck—Twelfth; Wilbert Henrich—thirteenth; Bill Gandenberger—Fourteenth; August Hermes—Fifteenth; George Honold—Sixteenth. Letters were awarded to all seven of these men and to Mgr. Harry Leigh.

VOLLEYBALL—Standing: M. Kaplan, S. Liscow, I. Klebanow. Seated: L. Rothchild, B. Radin, M. Spier.

The Freshman-Sophomore Volleyball team represented Hughes in the city-wide tournament this year, and distinguished themselves by placing second.

With the return of 5 lettermen from last years championship team, Coach Paul Richert hoped to build another strong band of winged warriors. Bad weather conditions prevented the Big Reds from getting out early in this season, and consequently only one triangular meet was held. The Big Reds, although placing second to Western Hills in that meet, gave promise of developing into a strong contender for the city title. The five returning lettermen, Co-Captains Holland and Bettner, Haught, Swartwout, Garvin, and Huelsebusch performed in their usual manner.

Michaels, Schubert, Gandenberger, and Hermes of the last year Junior Team established themselves firmly with the senior team by their excellent showing at the Western Hills meet. The Hughes speedsters have one more warm-up meet before they compete in the larger interscholastic meets. The remaining schedule of the Big Reds is as follows, the K. of C. relays at Withrow Stadium, the Miami Relays at Oxford, Ohio, the district meet at Western Hills, and the city meet at Walnut Hills. Hughes is the defending champion at all of these meets except Miami.

In the Bowling Club were ten teams with over fifty boys participating under the able guidance of Mr. Iblings and the officers. Above we see Vice-Pres. A. Stith, Pres. F. Weishaupt, Treas. J. Portune, and Sec. R. Huber.

The school team included Capt. F. Weishaupt at left, E. Oelerich, F. Riggers, A. Stith, and F. Wallace.

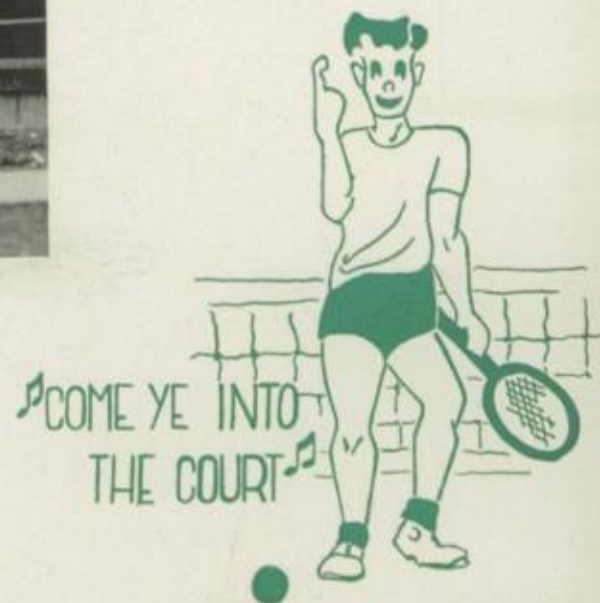

The championship went to the King Keglers captained by Frank Weishaupt after a play-off with the Strikes and Spars. Fred Beckman had the highest average with 170; Bob Lorenz, the high single game with 236.

Although bad weather was responsible for a late season, Coach Kindschy's tennis team got underway to uphold their record of eight consecutive district championships. Lettermen Bob Keller and Don White, together with freshmen Ed Wagner, played alternately at singles. Phil Reikow, Bob Boeh, Art Griffes, Vaughn Oswalt, Ted Bumiller, Sam Todd, Don Frazier, and letterman Earl Desserich completed the squad by competing in the doubles in various combinations.

The Hughes Tennis Team won the P. H. S. L. title for the eighth consecutive year by defeating Walnut Hills, Withrow, and Western Hills, all by scores of 3-2. Don White and Earl Desserich never lost a match.

With winter gone the Big Reds baseball team was underway of 1943 season with veterans Felix, Weiss, and O'Malley, plus the new faces of Bernie Westerkamp, Provenzano, Leigh and Scott, by giving Woodward a defeat of 21 runs to 11. Second game was with the Hill-toppers who, proving more skillful with ball and bat, handed our boys just defeat 92 runs to 3. Returning to the beam, our boys dug cleats deep, and rode the ball to victory by defeating Central Vocational with a score of 31 runs to 6. Then old man winter prolonged his stay in the Queen City through the middle of April to postpone six of the remaining ten games. Records were delayed, but the boys swung into the game later for an interesting season.

"Give me some men" is the message that has come to the high schools of America and to the teachers in physical education. In response, physical education has been given more prominence, higher rank, and more time. This is the first year in which grades have been given, producing added interest to say nothing of added muscle. An arduous, rigorous, well-disciplined program has been followed with extensive tests in all fields. Boys are swimming, climbing ropes, tumbling, and doing calisthenics who never thought of such activities before, and—after the initial breaking-in—are liking it. The lower classes have had three periods a week instead of the customary two, while the seniors have retained the two-period schedule. Grades are based on prescribed work on horses, appearance, effort, tumbling, swimming, horizontal bars, track, and other activities. The swimming grade constitutes one-fourth of the gym grade and the boys are taught all major strokes: crawl, side, breast, and back. Gym this year has increased in importance, credit, and effect, and has prepared the boys to some extent for military regimen.

The Girls' Athletic Association, made up of the girls interested in sports outside of schools hours, has sponsored many activities under the guidance of Miss Balastra and Miss Nurre. Records are kept of all girls participating in the G. A. A. sports that they may receive rewards when they have the required 300 points for the emblem, 900 for the pin, and 1250 points for the letter. The officers attended a general meeting at Walnut Hills to discover ways in which they might improve the group. Money from their skating party was given to the Red Cross.

Officers of the Girls' Athletic Association included Sec. Shirley Hoffman, Treas. Hilda Hartig, Vice-Pres. Dot Keininger, Pres. Emmy Kircher (seated), and Publicity Manager Vera Tozzer. Below is shown one of the regular gymnasium classes in which this year Victory Corps exercises and games occupied most of the time.

KICKBALL—
 Back Row: H. Hartig, N. Turner, C. West, S. Hoffman, E. Feiler, V. Schlueter, E. Kircher, S. Hauenstein, D. Keininger, E. Kueffner. Middle Row: J. Schaffner, B. Schierloh, R. Newman, S. Hill, B. Hemmert, S. Bammerlein, G. Brown. Front
 Row: M. Kueffner, D. Balastra, M. Dassinger, J. Bader, A. Eyer, V. Kunald, P. Gallagher.

Kickball for all grades was played indoors in the fall. Disappointment came to many when their kicks hit the ceiling as foul balls. The many participants enjoyed the comradeship and exercise under the direction of Miss Balastra.

PHYSICAL FITNESS GROUP—

Back Row: A. Eyer, C. Mooney, D. Wolsterman, S. Fuerst, H. Malloy, R. Neumann. Front Row: J. Wolfrum, A. Young, M. Greer, M. Harris, E. Feiler, V. Bonomoni, G. A. Fritz.

This year the one-time tumbling group went in for physical fitness. After testing themselves on the obstacle course on the University campus, they endeavored to build up their vitality and endurance for the war effort. Miss Balastra was the coach for this phase of Victory Corps activity.

SHUFFLEBOARD — D. Keininger, E. Kircher, V. Haverkas, J. Schaffner, A. Eyler, M. Kueffner, M. Dye, M. Dassinger, E. Wacksman. Seated: S. Silverman, J. Bader.

Shuffleboard, badminton, and ping pong are played elimination fashion in the mornings or afternoons of spring. The gym buzzes with enthusiasm as rivalry in these individual sports is very keen. These less strenuous games are patronized by many of the girls who do not come out for the other G. A. A. activities.

PING PONG—Back Row: M. Hatton, V. Kunal, E. Kueffner, H. Hartig, M. Stiles, S. Hoffman. Front Row: M. Crawley, D. Lindeman, V. Bonomini.

BADMINTON—Back Row: G. Dold, R. Hemmert, P. Gallagher, S. Hauenstein, S. Hill, G. Waldren, T. Williams, V. Tozzer. Seated: S. Green, S. Speckter.

Early spring found many girls hitting the volley ball back and forth across the net. First with color teams, then class teams, the girls matched their skill and cooperation. To the surprise of many, the junior team, in a close game for championship, nosed out the sophomore team by a score of 24 to 19.

Jimmy Kueffner

SOFTBALL—Back Row: G. Dold, A. Eyler, V. Kunold, G. Waldren, S. Hauenstein, D. Lindeman, E. Kircher, S. Hill, V. Haverkas, S. Hoffman, M. Dye, E. Wacksman, D. Keininger, J. Bader, S. Green. Center: M. Dassinger, P. Gallagher, P. Bursick, T. Williams, H. Hartig, E. Kueffner, M. Stiles. Sitting: S. Silverman, V. Bonomini, V. Tozzer, R. Hemmert, M. Kueffner.

RED HOCKEY TEAM—

tra, M. Bolten, H. Hartig, T. Eyler, G.
Brown, D. Keininger, Capt.

Field hockey was played in the late autumn when the winds might be balmy or nipping cold. The girls used Coy Field for their hockey. Field hockey differs from ice hockey in the substitution of a ball for the "puck". Keen competition and hard playing caused some bruises, but the girls carried on, and played hard to score a goal for their team. The Red team was on top when the scheduled games had been played. This fast moving sport afforded enjoyment as well as exercise. The season ended with a hockey play at Walnut Hills, where the Hughes girls won two games and lost two.

tra, M. Fox, R. Hascher, L. Guthman. Kneeling:
A. Fritze, V. Schlueter. Sitting: C. Lockwood, M. Hartman, J. Mathes, R. Kiefel.

WILLIAM TELL
OVERTURE

Dancing group includes (top center, then right) E. Wachsmann, L. Guthman, S. Silverman, C. Tull, M. Harris, G. Warshofsky, T. Ritsch, S. Green, L. Friedman, M. Greer, A. Eyler, S. Fuerst, S. Wernick, V. Bonomini, J. Schaffner, V. Kunold, D. Balastro, A. Fritze.

Miss Nurre helps the girls achieve grace and liveness in the dancing group activities.

SWIMMING—Standing: G. Buede, C. Thompson, E. Miller, E. Fieler, M. Crowley, V. Tozzer, V. Schlueter, H. Hartig, E. Kircher. Diving: E. Nehus, V. Bonomini, B. Steinriede, E. Olmsted. Seated: V. Kunold, S. Hoffman.

Only one hour a week, on Friday, are the mermaids permitted in the boys' pool, but this time is advantageously applied to hard practice under Miss Nurre's coaching. Their appreciation is shown in the fine results of the two intra-mural meets and the splendid attendance for both the winter and spring seasons.

The active, exciting sport of basketball occupied most of the G. A. A. mid-winter activity. Less strenuous is the feminine version because the "free throw" from center is used more often than the "tip-off", but participation sharpens action and mind. When the games had all been played, the seniors had won the olive branch in the class schedule.

BOWLING—Winning Team—Bowling manager M. Neuman, F. Swango, S. Speckter, N. Argo. Seated: V. Tozzer.

Myrtle Neumann*
